MARKETING PROPOSAL · GOLDEN KRUST NEWBURGH

Krust on Campus

Big Flavor. No Ride Needed.

Prepared for Unique Gray, Owner 50 Route 17K, Suite 114, Newburgh, NY 12550 · 845-787-4527

Draft dated October 26, 2026

Every price, delivery rule, and service term in this document is a proposal awaiting Unique's approval. Nothing has been sent, posted, or published to customers.

Labels used throughout: PROPOSAL needs owner approval · VERIFIED found on a public source, cited below · UNVERIFIED could not be confirmed and should be checked before use.

The plan in brief

Most students at Mount Saint Mary College and SUNY Orange's Newburgh campus can't easily get to Route 17K between classes. Krust on Campus turns that into the offer: students pool an order with a study group, club, or floor, and Golden Krust brings it to one approved campus pickup point, Monday through Friday. Pooled orders reach the delivery minimum without anyone overspending, and each delivery run carries a full order.

- Students: five campus deals named for class breaks, study sessions, club meetings, and events.
- Plaza employees: a badge-holder offer timed to your slow hours, plus break-room catering from your existing team-lunch menu.
- Faculty and departments: served through your existing catering menu and terms, kept separate from student pricing.
- Food trucks and caterers: a wholesale pilot for patties, coco bread, and bun-and-cheese packs, once franchise and licensing questions are answered.

Before anything goes public, Unique needs to settle three things: real unit costs (the calculator below shows the contribution once they're entered), each college's outside-food rules, and franchisor approval for wholesale.

What the research changed

I checked the public menus for the Newburgh store and the college websites. Three pricing problems showed up that the original deal sheet doesn't account for.

1. The Between-Class Bite may cost more than buying the same items today

Delivery apps list this store's mild beef patty at $4.29–$4.50, coco bread at $1.50, and a patty-with-coco-bread combo at $5.59. At $6.99, the "deal" is $1.00–$1.40 above those prices, and app prices usually run higher than in-store ones. The Study Partner Combo ($13.49) has the same problem. Check your in-store POS price first. If $6.99 is above it, either include a drink at $6.99 or price the Bite at the regular combo price and let delivery be what makes it a deal.

2. The Study Group Pack undercuts your own patty catering box goldenkrustnewburgh.com sells 12 patties for $72 (the "Department" tier). At $49.99 for 12, the student pack is about 31% cheaper. Faculty and offices will order the student pack instead. Keep it student-only: verify student or club status and keep it on the campus delivery program, so the $72 box stays the price for departments and businesses.

3. Club trays are priced well below your team-lunch packages

At $129 for 8–10 servings, the Club Meeting Tray works out to $12.90–$16.13 per serving. Your published team meals start at $25 per person. That gap suits student clubs, but the trays should stay restricted to student groups. Department lunches go through your existing catering menu.

4. Campus permission comes first

Mount Saint Mary College runs dining through Parkhurst Dining, and SUNY Orange has its own food service. I found no public outside-food or catering policy for either school. Ask Student Engagement (MSMC) and the Center for Student Involvement (SUNY Orange) which pickup points are allowed and whether clubs may order outside food. Don't print college names or set pickup points until they answer.

5. Public hours don't match

Listings show 7 AM–10 PM (corporate locator), 9 AM–10 PM Mon–Sat (goldenkrustnewburgh.com), about 8:15 AM–7:45 PM (Apple Maps), and 8:30 AM–7:10 PM for online ordering. Students who find the wrong hours become a lost order. Update Google, Apple Maps, the locator, and the delivery apps to one set of hours before launch.

Campus offers

I kept your names where they already fit the campus day and adjusted two so they say what's in the box: "Study Group Dozen" makes the 12-pack obvious, and "Club Meeting Tray" says who it's for. Every deal uses mild beef patties to keep prep simple. Drinks are extra.

DEAL PROPOSAL	WHAT'S INCLUDED	PRICE	PUBLIC REFERENCE PRICE	WATCH FOR
Between-Class Bite	1 mild-beef patty + 1 coco bread	$6.99	App combo $5.59; separate $5.79–$6.00	May be above the regular price. See finding 1.
Study Partner Combo	2 mild-beef patties + 2 coco breads	$13.49	App: 2 combos $11.18; separate $11.58–$12.00	Same issue. Saves only $0.49 against two Bites.
Study Group Dozen	12 mild-beef patties	$49.99	$4.17 per patty vs. app $4.29–$4.50; catering box 12 for $72	Student and club orders only. See finding 2.
Club Meeting Tray	Half pan curry or brown-stew chicken, half pan rice, half pan vegetables	$129	$12.90–$16.13 per serving at 8–10; team meals from $25 pp	8–10 servings is a target until portion testing confirms it. 24 hrs notice.
Campus Event Feast	Two tray kits (any mix of curry and brown-stew chicken)	$249	$12.45–$15.56 per serving at 16–20	Saves $9 against two trays. 24 hrs notice. Needs oven or holding capacity.

Reference prices come from the Newburgh store's DoorDash, Uber Eats, and order.online listings and from goldenkrustnewburgh.com, as indexed by search on October 26, 2026. This session couldn't open those pages directly, and app prices often include a markup, so confirm every figure against the in-store POS. These are public selling prices. They say nothing about Unique's actual costs.

Where students will see themselves

- Between-Class Bite: one person, a gap between classes, lunch before a lab.
- Study Partner Combo: two roommates or lab partners, an evening review session.
- Study Group Dozen: a library group room, exam review, or a team that splits the cost.
- Club Meeting Tray: a general meeting, an e-board dinner, or a first-meeting turnout draw.
- Campus Event Feast: cultural nights, a Black History Month program, end-of-semester banquets, or orientation events.

Contribution check

Enter Unique's real costs to see what each deal and each delivery run contributes. I haven't filled in any costs, because I don't know them. Until costs are entered, the last column shows the most each deal can cost you and still hit your target contribution. That number alone tells you whether a price can work.

Campus delivery program PROPOSAL

Delivery runs Monday through Friday to approved Newburgh campus pickup points. It is not limited to one campus day.

COMBINED FOOD SUBTOTAL	DELIVERY	EXAMPLE
Under $75	Pickup at the store only	Encourage pooling: "Add 3 friends and we'll bring it."
$75.00–$124.99	$6 delivery fee for the whole order	11 Between-Class Bites ($76.89) or 2 Study Group Dozens ($99.98)
$125 and up	Free scheduled delivery	1 Club Meeting Tray ($129) or 1 Campus Event Feast ($249)

- Pooling is allowed. The minimum applies to the combined order, not to each student.
- One order, one organizer, one spot. One person places and pays for the order. It goes to one approved pickup point in one delivery window.
- Thresholds apply after discounts and before tax.
- Coverage: within five road miles of the store, pending a timed test drive to each campus. Both campuses appear to be inside that radius, but the routes haven't been driven or measured. UNVERIFIED
- Trays and Feasts need 24 hours' notice. Patty deals need a same-day cutoff (suggested: 10:00 AM for the lunch window, 2:00 PM for the late-afternoon window).
- Suggested windows: 11:45 AM–12:15 PM and 4:30–5:00 PM. Set them from your staffing, cap each window at a fixed number of orders, and expand only when the calculator shows the runs pay.

- Pickup points are only places each college approves in writing. The organizer meets the driver there. Food isn't left unattended.
- No delivery when a college closes, on its breaks, or in unsafe weather. Orders move to the next window or get a full refund.

Keep the existing lunch program separate. Your current team-lunch and catering packages (published on goldenkrustnewburgh.com) keep their own prices, minimums, and terms. Krust on Campus rules apply only to the five campus deals above and only to student orders delivered to campus pickup points.

Ordering, payment, pickup, cancellation PROPOSAL

1. Gather the group. The organizer collects what everyone wants and checks that the combined subtotal clears $75 for delivery.
2. Place one order. Call 845-787-4527 (or use an order form, if Unique sets one up) by the cutoff. Give the deal names, quantities, campus, pickup point, window, and a mobile number. Mention code CAMPUS so the order gets the campus price and can be tracked.
3. Pay up front. The organizer pays the full amount by card when ordering. Clubs can pay with a club or college card if their school allows it. Students settle shares among themselves. Golden Krust takes one payment per order.
4. Get a confirmation. Golden Krust confirms the total, window, and pickup point by text or email. Trays are confirmed at least 24 hours ahead.
5. Meet the driver. The driver texts about 10 minutes out and waits up to 10 minutes at the pickup point. The organizer checks the order on handoff.

Cancellations and changes

- Patty deals: free changes or cancellation until the order cutoff. After that, no refund once prep starts.
- Trays and Feasts: full refund if cancelled 24+ hours before the window. 50% refund inside 24 hours. No refund once out for delivery.
- No-show at pickup after 10 minutes: the order goes back to the store for pickup until close. No refund.

If something goes wrong

- Missing or wrong items: report at handoff. We replace them on the next window or refund them.
- Late by 20+ minutes because of us: the delivery fee is refunded.
- College closure or weather: move the order or get a full refund.

Other sales programs

Plaza employees PROPOSAL

Start with Target and two or three neighboring businesses whose managers agree.

- Badge-holder offer during your slowest weekday hours, chosen from POS data. Example: free coco bread with any patty, 2–5 PM, Monday–Thursday. Avoid a standing percentage discount at peak lunch.
- Break-room catering for shift meetings and staff appreciation, from your existing team-lunch menu and terms.
- Ask permission before posting a flyer in any break room. Large retailers often have rules on outside solicitation.

Faculty and departments

- Serve them from the existing catering menu (team meals from $25 per person, patty boxes 6 for $36 and 12 for $72, per goldenkrustnewburgh.com), not student pricing.
- Department admins usually pay by purchase order or a college card, so expect vendor setup paperwork (W-9, possibly a certificate of insurance).
- Offer a first-order tasting box for department assistants: the people who actually place lunch orders.

Clubs and campus events

- Club Meeting Tray, Campus Event Feast, and Study Group Dozen.
- Calendar hooks: finals study sessions (December), spring involvement fairs (MSMC holds one at the start of each semester), Black History Month programs (February), cultural nights, and end-of-year banquets.
- Club funding at SUNY Orange runs through the Student Senate, so treasurers need an itemized quote ahead of time.

Food trucks and caterers: wholesale pilot PROPOSAL

- Products: mild-beef patty cases, coco bread packs, bun-and-cheese packs. Pricing comes from real costs, with a minimum order and a set weekly pickup day.
- Get franchisor approval in writing first. Golden Krust franchise terms may limit reselling branded products to other businesses. UNVERIFIED
- Confirm licensing. Selling food to other businesses in New York may need a NYS Agriculture & Markets license, plus labeling with ingredients and allergens. Ask Ag & Markets and the Orange County Health Department. UNVERIFIED
- Check whether prospects can already buy frozen patties through distributors. That sets the price ceiling.

30 / 60 / 90-day rollout

The timing follows the academic calendar: finals arrive in December, winter break empties both campuses, and spring semester is the real launch. Confirm both colleges' calendars before setting dates.

Days 1–30

Nov 2 – Dec 1, 2026

Prove the numbers and get permission.

- Pull real unit costs and in-store prices into the calculator. Fix the Bite and Partner pricing.
- Portion-test one curry tray and one brown-stew tray. Count real servings, and photograph them for social.
- Time a test drive to each campus at both windows, and record miles and minutes.
- Send the college emails. Ask about outside food, approved pickup points, and posting rules.
- Fix the hours on every listing.
- Pitch two plaza employers, and launch the badge-holder offer in the slowest time slot.
- Ask the franchisor and NYS Ag & Markets the wholesale questions.

Done when: costs are entered, trays tested, at least one college has replied, and the plaza offer is live.

Days 31–60

Dec 2 – Dec 31, 2026

Soft launch around finals and holidays.

- Offer the Study Group Dozen to any group that approved campus contacts connect you with, for finals review sessions.
- Pitch holiday department lunches from the existing catering menu.
- Run the first pooled deliveries at a capped number per window. Log every run's time, miles, and contribution.
- Start the wholesale pilot with one or two food trucks if approvals are in place.
- Over winter break, focus on plaza employees and wholesale.

Done when: 10+ pooled orders are logged, delivery cost per run is known, and the flyer is approved.

Days 61–90

Jan 1 – Jan 30, 2027

Spring semester launch.

- Print the approved flyer and post it only where each college permits.
- Table at spring involvement fairs if allowed, with Bite samples cut into quarters.
- Pitch February cultural and Black History Month events to the BSUs, the International Club, and the Latin Student Union.
- Start the three-post Instagram series.
- Review the data: keep the windows that pay, drop the ones that don't, and adjust the $75 threshold if needed.

Track weekly: campus orders, average pooled subtotal, share of orders at $75+, contribution per run, repeat organizers, and code CAMPUS redemptions.

POST 1 · CAPTION

Fifteen minutes between classes and no car? That's enough.

The Between-Class Bite is a flaky mild-beef patty with soft coco bread for $6.99. Pool an order with your classmates and we'll bring it to your campus pickup spot, Monday–Friday.

Call 845-787-4527 and mention CAMPUS.
📍 50 Route 17K, near Target

VISUAL CONCEPT

"The gap in the schedule." A tight shot of a hand pulling a patty out of a coco bread sleeve, steam visible, with a backpack strap and a printed class schedule soft-focused behind it. The text overlay sits in the schedule's empty block: "11:50–12:05 · Between-Class Bite." Shoot vertical 4:5 in natural window light with the logo small, bottom right.

POST 2 · CAPTION

Study group tonight? Bring a dozen.

The Study Group Dozen is 12 mild-beef patties for $49.99. Add friends to your order. Once the group's total hits $75, delivery to your campus pickup spot is $6. At $125 it's free.

One person orders, everyone eats. 845-787-4527.

Run it as a carousel: slide 2 shows "How pooling works" as three icons (group → one order → campus pickup point), and slide 3 shows the $75 / $125 delivery thresholds in brand red and gold.

POST 3 · CAPTION

Club meeting this week? Feed the whole room, not just the e-board.

The Club Meeting Tray is a half pan of curry or brown-stew chicken, a half pan of rice, and a half pan of vegetables for $129, with free delivery to your campus pickup spot. Order 24 hours ahead.

Treasurers: call 845-787-4527 for an itemized quote.

Subject: Food for student clubs and study groups: delivery to an approved campus spot?

Hello,

I own Golden Krust Newburgh, the Jamaican bakery and restaurant on Route 17K near Target. Many Mount students don't have a car, so we'd like to bring patties, coco bread, and chicken trays to campus for club meetings, study groups, and events.

Before we promote anything to students, I want to do it your way. Could you tell me:

1. Whether student clubs may order outside food for meetings and events, and any steps involved
2. Whether there's a campus location where a driver could hand off a pre-paid order, and during which hours
3. Your rules for posting flyers or tabling, including at the spring involvement fair
4. Who handles this for cultural clubs such as the Black Student Union and Latin Student Union

We deliver Monday through Friday. Trays are ordered 24 hours ahead and come with plates and utensils. I'm happy to drop off a sample tray for your staff.

Thank you for your time.

Subject: Delivering club meeting food to the Newburgh campus

Hello,

I own Golden Krust Newburgh on Route 17K. We'd like to make it easy for Newburgh campus clubs and students without cars to order Caribbean food for meetings, study sessions, and events, delivered Monday through Friday.

Could you help with a few questions?

1. Can chartered clubs use their Student Senate funds with an outside food vendor? If so, what paperwork do you need from us (itemized quote, W-9, insurance)?
2. Is there an approved spot near Kaplan Hall or the Tower Building where a driver could hand off a pre-paid order?
3. What are the rules for posting flyers on the Newburgh campus?

I'd be glad to stop by during your office hours with a sample for your staff.

Thank you,

Hi [Club name] officers,

I'm Unique Gray, owner of Golden Krust Newburgh on Route 17K. If your club has a general meeting, a cultural night, or a [February / spring] event coming up, we can bring the food to campus.

Options we're offering student clubs [confirm prices before sending]:
- Club Meeting Tray: half pan of curry or brown-stew chicken, half pan of rice, half pan of vegetables, about 8–10 servings, $[129]
- Campus Event Feast: two tray kits, about 16–20 servings, $[249]
- Study Group Dozen: 12 mild-beef patties, $[49.99]

Orders of $125 and up get free delivery to [approved pickup point]. Trays need 24 hours' notice. I can send your treasurer an itemized quote for funding approval.

What's on your calendar this semester?

Subject: Department lunch from Golden Krust Newburgh

Hello [Name],

I own Golden Krust Newburgh on Route 17K, a few minutes from campus. We cater department meetings, faculty lunches, and recognition events with jerk and curry chicken, rice and peas, plantains, vegetables, and our patties.

Our team meal packages are priced per person by group size, and patty boxes come in 6 and 12. I've attached our current catering menu [attach approved menu]. We can invoice the department or accept a college purchasing card, and we'll complete any vendor paperwork your office needs.

If it would help, I'm happy to drop off a tasting box for your office so you can try the food before your next meeting.
