KRUST ON CAMPUS · HOLIDAY CAMPAIGN 1 · GOLDEN KRUST NEWBURGH

Friendsgiving & Finals Fuel

Big Flavor. No Ride Needed.

Prepared for Unique Gray, Owner Runs November 9 – December 18, 2026 Draft dated October 26, 2026

Every price, date, and term here is a proposal awaiting Unique's approval. Nothing has been sent or posted.

How this fits the Krust on Campus program

Everything from the main plan stays the same: the same audiences, pooled orders, one organizer paying, one campus pickup spot, Monday–Friday delivery, and the same delivery fees ($6 for $75–$124.99, free at $125 and up). This campaign changes only the theme, two holiday trays, and a late delivery window during finals.

If the colleges haven't approved pickup spots yet

Run Friendsgiving as order ahead, pick up at the store for students. Plaza businesses and faculty holiday lunches don't need campus approval, so they launch on schedule either way. Don't post the flyer on campus until each college says yes.

Holiday offers PROPOSAL

OFFER	WHAT'S INCLUDED	PRICE	DATES	WHY IT'S PRICED THIS WAY
Friendsgiving Tray	Half pans of curry or brown-stew chicken, rice and peas, vegetables, and sweet plantains. Feeds about 10.	$149	Nov 9–24	The $129 Club Meeting Tray, plus a half pan of plantains and a rice-and-peas upgrade for $20. Add those costs to the calculator in the main plan before approving.
Friendsgiving Feast	Two Friendsgiving Trays. Feeds about 20.	$279	Nov 9–24	$19 off two trays, which rewards the bigger order without a deep discount.
Finals Fuel Dozen	12 mild-beef patties, with an extra 7:00–7:30 PM delivery window	$49.99	Finals weeks (Dec 7–18, confirm)	Same price as the Study Group Dozen. The extra delivery window is the special, so the margin stays the same. Only run the late window if a driver is available.
Holiday office catering	Team meals and patty boxes from the existing catering menu	Menu price	Nov 30 – Dec 23	For plaza businesses and college departments. Keeps their regular catering prices and terms.

Order codes: FRIENDS for Friendsgiving and FINALS for finals orders, so each can be counted separately. If the store sells sorrel during the holidays, offer it as an add-on drink. I didn't confirm that it's on the Newburgh menu.

The long table. Shoot overhead: four half pans down the center of pushed-together dorm or club-room tables, paper plates, string lights, a handwritten "Friendsgiving" sign taped to the wall. Use the brand red and gold on the text overlay, not orange-and-brown Thanksgiving clip art.

POST 2 · NOV 16 · CAPTION

Your club's last meeting before break deserves more than chips.

The Friendsgiving Feast is two full trays that feed about 20, for $279. Treasurers: call 845-787-4527 for an itemized quote. Last delivery is Tuesday, Nov 24.

Finals don't stop at 5 PM, so neither do we.

During finals weeks, the Finals Fuel Dozen (12 mild-beef patties, $49.99) can come to your campus pickup spot between 7:00 and 7:30 PM. Pool it with your study group and mention FINALS.

Monthly program proposal for Unique

This is a short pitch to keep Krust on Campus running all year as a monthly arrangement. Fill in your price before sending.

To: Unique Gray

Subject: Keeping Krust on Campus going all year

Hi Unique,

Krust on Campus is built to repeat. The audiences, the delivery setup, and the ordering steps stay the same, and each month gets a new theme tied to the school calendar and the holidays. Friendsgiving and finals come first, then spring semester, Black History Month, Easter bun and cheese, graduation, and Jamaican Independence Day.

Here's what I'd handle each month:
- One themed campaign: specials, a print-ready flyer, three Instagram posts with captions, and outreach emails to clubs, departments, and plaza businesses
- Pricing checks with you, so every special still makes money after delivery
- A one-page results report: orders by code, tray sales, delivery runs, and new groups that ordered
- Planning 4–6 weeks ahead, so colleges and clubs have time to say yes

My fee would be $[amount] per month, starting [month], with a [3-month] trial so you can judge it by the results.

You'd approve every price and post before anything goes out.

Would you like to start with Friendsgiving and finals?
